TITLE – Extension and Outreach Programmes for Community Welfare.

OBJECTIVES – The practice aims to undertake such programmes or activities that ensure the welfare of the community and society.

THE PRACTICE – The college organizes extension and outreach programmes through NSS, YRC, Red Cross, Women Cell etc. Welfare and support activities like Blood Donation, Free Health Check Up Camps, providing medicines, supplements to the girls who are weak and anaemic, various trainings and workshops for girls are carried out from time to time.

EVIDENCE – The activities are properly documented and photographs are posted on the college portal gallery.

SUCCESS – Such programmes have a high success rate as maximum participation of the students and benefit of the programmes to the community is ensured.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED AND RESOURCES REQUIRED – Some problems such as convincing the community members for participation in the programmes, lack of funds etc. arise which are tackled accordingly.

TITLE OF THE PRACTICE – CARING BY SHARING.

OBJECTIVES – The practice was introduced with the good intention of sharing bounties bestowed by the Lord almighty with the less privileged. The staff and the students of the college gift and also donate clothes, utensils, cycles, items of crockery, stationery, books, blankets, footwear, playthings etc. duly cleaned, washed and without any wear and tear, for the poor and needy.

THE PRACTICE – The feeling of sharing our resources with the destitute and to show that we care for them is mostly inherent. So, the only challenge was to motivate the students for the same, which was not a big issue as the students and the staff of the college is always ready for any humanitarian efforts that work towards making the world a better place to live. The students showed great enthusiasm and converted this challenge into an activity of kindness for the betterment of the needy.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS - The practice is properly documented and photographs are also posted on college portal gallery.
